MIKE KRZYZEWSKI

Duke University Head Basketball Coach

Duke University Basketball and United States National Head Coach Mike Krzyzewski cannot be defined solely by those accolades reserved for a highly successful sports coach. Indeed, Coach K has led the Blue Devils to numerous winning seasons, coached players who have produced superb graduation rates, crafted a tremendous on-court legacy, and most recently led Team USA to Gold in the Beijing Olympics. However, the Hall of Famer also sets the bar as a humanitarian of sport, an ambassador of education, a coach, a teacher, a friend, a family man, and a leader. Coach K is a superb clinician, communicator, motivator and strategist. His record speaks for itself.

A winner of 833 games during his college coaching career, Coach K has led the Blue Devils to the pinnacle of college basketball. At Duke, Coach K has won three national titles, reached 10 Final Fours, earned 25 NCAA Tournament bids and 10 NCAA Tournament No. 1 seeds, and claimed the No. 1 ranking in 14 different seasons (AP poll). He has also won 11 ACC Tournament titles and 11 ACC regular-season crowns. His 1992 national championship squad is the last NCAA team to go wire-to-wire with the nation's top ranking. The 2001 Blue Devils won 34 games en route to Duke's third all-time national championship.

In addition to his many coaching accolades and successes, Coach K remains passionately committed to the development of young basketball players and to the game of basketball itself. He has served as the head coach for USA teams in the World Championships, Goodwill Games, World University Games, U.S. Olympic Festival, and most recently at the Olympics in Beijing. In 1992, Coach K was an assistant coach for the USA Olympic "Dream Team" in Barcelona. He also served as President of the National Association of Basketball Coaches and is now a Board member for the iHoops youth basketball initiative. Coach K recently started his second four-year term as U.S. National Head Coach and enters his 30th year at Duke.

Associate Head Coach STEVE WOJCIECHOWSKI

Steve Wojciechowski, a standout Duke point guard from 1994 through 1998, is in his 11th season coaching at his alma mater and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in 2008. Wojo, the 1998 National Defensive Player of the Year, is a member of the USA Basketball college selection committee and has served as a coach at Pete Newell's Big Man Camp. Additionally, the All-ACC selection assisted the U.S. National Team from 2005-2008.

Associate Head Coach CHRIS COLLINS

Chris Collins is now in his ninth season coaching at his alma mater and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in 2008. Following his graduation from Duke in 1996, the All-ACC guard played professionally in Europe and then served as an assistant coach for both the WNBA's Detroit Shock and Seton Hall. Collins worked with the U.S. National Team as well from 2005-2008.

Assistant Coach NATE JAMES

2001 Duke graduate and national champion Nate James joined the Duke coaching staff in 2008. The only player in history to win five ACC regular-season titles, James earned All-ACC honors his senior year. Duke was ranked No. 1 in four different seasons during James' career and earned four NCAA Tournament No. 1 seeds. A two-time Final Four participant, James played professionally in the U.S. and 11 countries overseas before returning to his alma mater.
